

Our Mission

The mission of HRMA is to foster the professional development of our membership, to be a forum for the exchange of ideas, and to provide for the creative leadership and effective management of people, in order to add value to the organizations they represent and the community at large.

About HRMA

HRMA was organized in 1942 and is the oldest association for Human Resource professionals in the greater St. Louis area. We have served thousands of Human Resource practitioners and educators by providing timely and high quality services, supporting private and public sector organizations, through professional development meetings and seminars, publications, and developing a valuable set of professional relationships through networking.

HRMA has been affiliated with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) for over 40 years. SHRM is the world's largest organization of human resources, labor and employee relations professionals with a total membership of 100,000 in more than 400 chapters. HRMA has consistently been a large and active chapter and has earned SHRM's Superior Merit Award for ten consecutive years. HRMA has also hosted the national convention several times.

Membership in HRMA entitles HR professionals to a variety of benefits, including workshops and seminars. The regular monthly meetings (September through May) feature speakers or panels during an early evening seminar, followed by networking and dinner with a guest speaker. Meetings are generally held the third Wednesday evening of the month with times varying by program.
